

The Daily Offices

THE ANCIENT

PRACTICE

OF

MORNING AND EVENING

PRAYER

WHAT IS THIS BOOK?

Anglicans are known as people of two books. The first is The Bible. The second is The Book of Common Prayer (BCP). The BCP contains a breathtakingly rich heritage of worship and prayers that connects the church of today with the church of the past. Whether it's communion service, ordination(s) or ordination services, or the offices of morning and evening prayer – each is robustly biblical containing the very best representation of how the church has worshipped throughout history.

The Anglican heritage is not best known for the doctrinal formularies it has passed down throughout the ages (although the 39 Articles are remarkable and the defining theological statements of our own community). The Anglican heritage, rather, is located in its book of worship. It is through the services and prayers contained therein that one learns the essential doctrines of the Anglican Church: the supremacy and centrality of the Bible, justification by grace through faith, the substitutionary atoning death of Jesus Christ, and the episcopal form of church governance. However, if you have ever picked up that little red book known as The Book of Common Prayer, you know that it can be an overwhelming experience. It is not an Apple product. It's not simple, intuitive and easy to use right out of the box. The BCP requires discipline and practice. In our age of instant gratification, we tend to avoid practices – let alone spiritual practices – that involve a steep learning curve coupled with the need for persistent commitment. But if we cave in to the spirit of our age, we in turn miss out on one of the most phenomenal offerings of our Anglican heritage. So what are we to do?

This little booklet in your hands is a stepping stone. We have taken the Forms of Prayers to be used in Families (found in the back of the BCP) and tailored them into a user-friendly form of The Order of Morning and Evening Prayer. Our goal in doing this is to offer the BCP as a tool for prayer that can be intuitively and easily utilized. This booklet will allow you to take either a dip in the shallow end, or dive into the deep end of the ancient Daily Offices. These offices (or forms of prayer) have shaped and enriched Christian prayer and worship for centuries. We must stress that even though the format of this spiritual resource is accessible and full of promise, a persistent commitment is still required. The benefits of the Daily Offices are only discovered through the consistent and enduring investment of time and energy. But the results are immeasurable: a robustly biblical and worshipful experience of Christ's glory in the morning and evening – over and over again! So, come! Take a dip until you're ready to dive in with us!

HOW TO USE THIS BOOK

This book contains two services of prayer: Morning and Evening. Each has unique content, corresponding to the time of day. Both services are divided into three parts. As an introduction, let's briefly consider Morning Prayer. On any given morning, you begin with Part One. Once you work through its contents, turn to the corresponding day (Monday thru Saturday) in Part Two. From this point, you conclude with Part Three. Part One and Part Three are the same every day. Part Two rotates, according to the day of the week. Easy enough! The three parts come together to make the whole. However, we have also deliberately designed each part to stand on its own. If you're ever pressed for time, you can simply pray Part One. When you have more time, and want to engage with Scripture, you can incorporate Part Two (or use it on its own). Part Three provides space for focused intercession for other people.

In an ideal world you consistently pray through the entire service of prayer, every morning and evening. Setting aside a consistent time and place will make all the difference. The Morning Prayer readies us for the day, inviting us to intercede for one another (and the city and world) as we do so. The Evening Prayer is more reflective, looking back on the day. To this end, it creates space to repent of our sins and to give thanks for how God has been faithful to us. Each prayer service contains a number of different elements:

INVITATION We begin our prayers as people invited into God's presence. The invitation helps to open ourselves to the Gospel. It aids us in becoming aware and mindful of God's presence.

LORD'S PRAYER When his disciples asked about prayer, Jesus taught them what we now call the Lord's Prayer. We begin our daily prayers by putting Jesus' instruction into practice which provides the framework for how we see and understand our lives within the world.

COLLECTS The term "collect" denotes a prayer which assists us in collecting our thoughts for intercession and thanksgiving. They affirm God's character and lead us to pray in light of who God is. Collects gather our individual prayers together as one.

PSALMS The psalms have taught God's people how to pray for several millennia. St. Augustine called them "the school of prayer." There will be times when a psalm doesn't match or connect with your immediate experience. That's okay! It may be expressing someone else's experience; it may even be your experience one day. So, let the Psalms prepare you to respond to God with a full range of emotion, based on life's ups and downs.

SCRIPTURE READING Every morning and evening service includes readings from the Bible. Our reading plan will take you through most of the Bible in a year (turn to p. 26 for more details).

DWELLING Dwelling is rooted in the ancient Christian practice of Lectio Divina (we encourage you to explore this tradition further online). This is a way of reading the Bible slowly, contemplatively, and leisurely. It is a mode of reading that does not seek information. Rather, it desires to hear the personal address of God. Dwelling assumes that prayer is a two-way conversation. It enables us to dialogue with Jesus by hearing, listening, and responding to the Word.

INTERCESSION & GIVING THANKS

In this prayer book, intercession takes place in the morning, and thanksgiving is done in the evening. We begin our day asking God for the needs and concerns of our church, city and world; as well as our personal needs. This is a crucial prayer practice in an age of isolation, hyper-individualism, and self-sufficiency. We end our day by giving thanks both as an expression of gratitude and way of cultivating gratitude.

CONFESSION God asks us to be honest with him, sharing the areas of our lives where we have sinned and are subject to passing or chronic brokenness. Confession is an opportunity to share our failures, shortcomings, struggles, and sin. It is a time to lay our neediness—and the shame it often causes—before our Maker. In confession we ask for God's compassion through Jesus Christ. The practice of confession reminds us daily that we all have need of God's mercy and forgiveness. After reading the prayer of confession, pause to bring specificity to this prayer as may be relevant to your circumstances. Reflect on your day, that confession may become an expression of your heart.

PARDON THROUGH THE CROSS As we confess our sins, the point is not to park in guilt or shame but to open ourselves up to the grace of God. This prayer affirms our trust in Jesus and gives concrete expression to the gospel. Even at our worst, God loves us, forgives us, and is working for our good—and we know this because while we were sinners, Christ died for us.

DOXOLOGY These words were penned in 1674 by Thomas Ken. They anchor us in the reality that our only proper response to God is worship and praise.

BENEDICTION God gets the last word in our worship. First, God blesses us. Then God sends us out into the world, to live a life that reflects his love, mercy, and truth.

QUIET Sometimes we need to slow down and be still instead of rushing in order to "get things done." When you see the word Quiet, be still for a moment and remember that Christ abides in you as you abide in him.

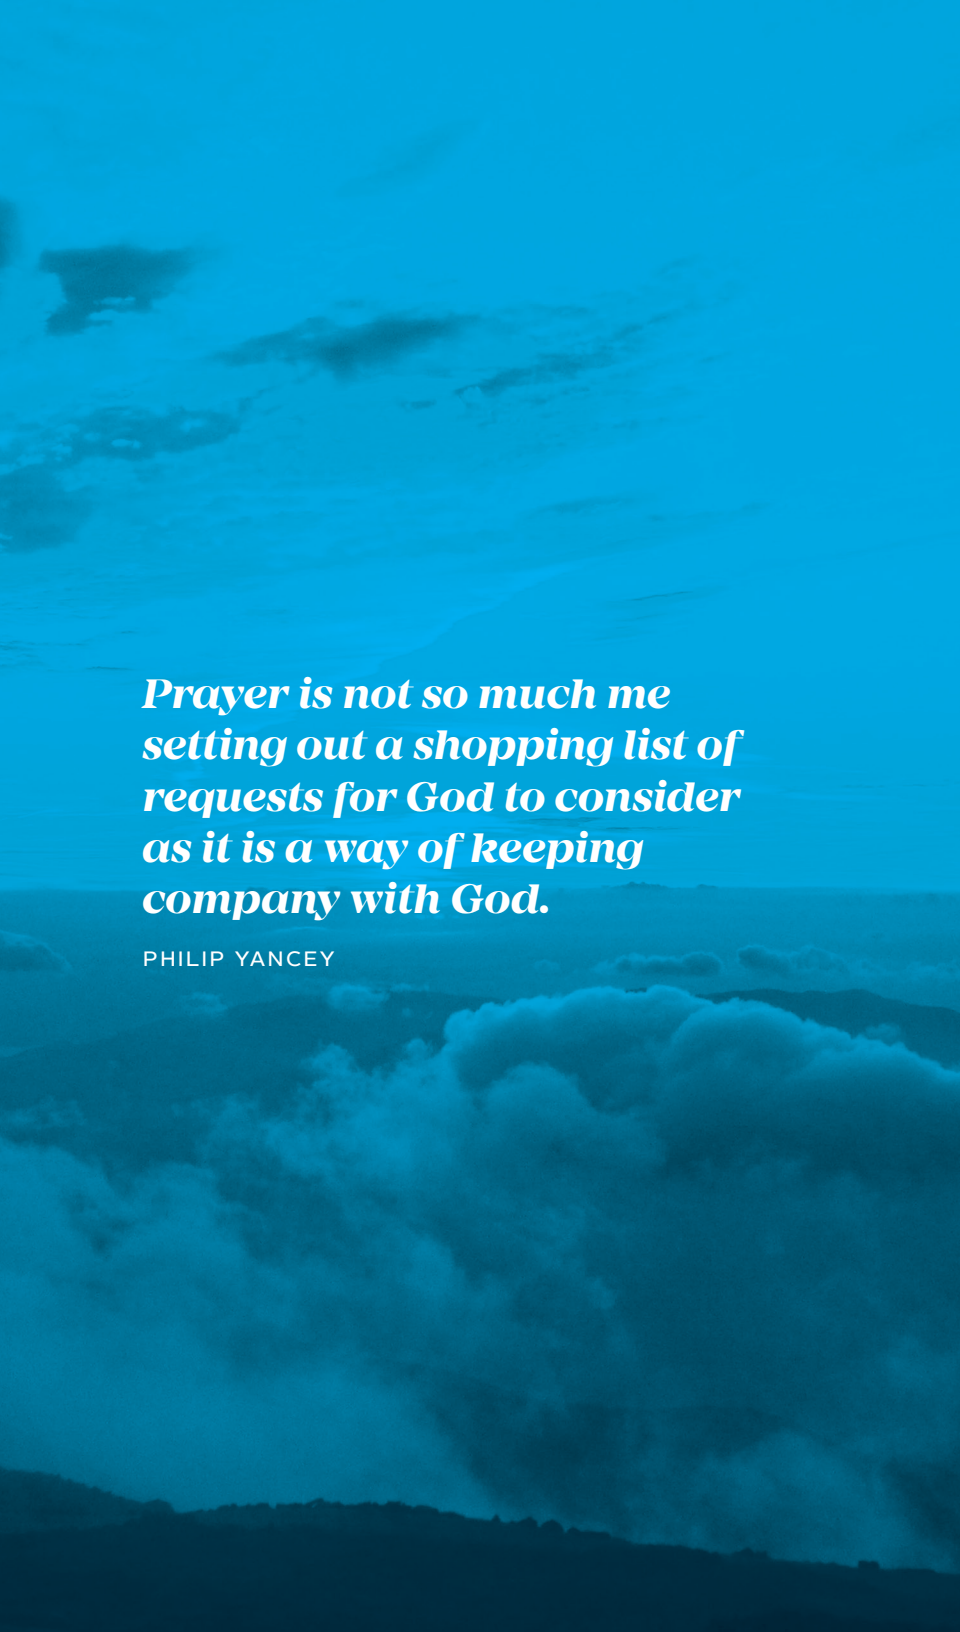

PRAYING SET WORDS

You may not be accustomed to a way of praying that involves pre-set words. Don't write it off before giving it a try! The Anglican theologian, William Law, offers a helpful way of seeing this:

"Christians ought to use forms of prayer at all the regular times of prayer. It seems right for every one to begin with a form of prayer. If, in the midst of their devotions, they find their heart ready to break forth into new and higher strains of devotions, they should leave this form for awhile and follow those fervors of their heart, till it again wants the assistance of their usual petitions."

May you find Morning and Evening Prayer to be helpful springboards and not irksome structures. We are confident that this prayer resource will serve you well—for closer identification with Christ—as it has countless Christians in centuries before our own.

Godspeed.

MORNING PRAYER

Every Morning

MORNING PRAYER PART ONE

INVITATION

"As the Father has loved me, so have I loved you.
Abide in my love."

John 15.9

Quiet

Jesus, my Lord and my God:
With this new dawn, I seek you.
In the morning, I call out to you:
Guard and guide my steps this day.

LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name.
Your kingdom come, your will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins,
as we forgive those who sin against us.
Lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For yours is the kingdom, and the power,
and the glory forever and ever.
Amen.

MORNING COLLECT

As we rejoice in the gift of this new day,
so may the light of your presence, O God,
set our hearts on fire with love for you;
now and forever.
Amen.

PSALM

Open your Bible to the Psalms, and choose a Psalm.
You can choose them at random, or read them sequentially through the year. However, don't just read the Psalm. Pray with the Psalmist!

SCRIPTURE READING

Read your passage for this Monday morning.
Don't rush! This is God's Word!

DWELLING

Slowly read the passage again, out loud. Reflect on what this passage tells you about God. Spend some time talking to God about what stood out to you.

COLLECT

Almighty Father, whose blessed Son before his passion prayed for his disciples that they might be one, as you and he are one: grant that your church, being bound together in love and obedience to you, may be united in one body by the one Spirit, that the world may believe in him whom you have sent, your Son Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

PRAY FOR THE FLOURISHING OF THE CHURCH

- For our pastors, our ministry team, our interns, and our care team
- For our church to embody our five core values: Under Authority, Default to Prayer, Integrated Faith, Interdependence, and Joy of Salvation
- For purity, a heart for others, an eagerness to serve, grace for all stages of life, and freedom from sin
- For our Community Groups to embody the rhythms (up, in, out, with), and for their respective leaders

SCRIPTURE READING

Before you read your passage for this Tuesday morning, remember: The Scriptures are no ordinary words, they are God's Word.

DWELLING

Leisurely read the passage again. Is there a word or idea that stuck with you? Take a moment to talk to God about it and to rest in his presence.

COLLECT

O Lord our Heavenly Father, by whose providence our duties and labours are variously ordered: grant to each of us a desire to undertake our work with diligence and integrity, serving one master and looking for one reward. Teach us to put to good use whatever talents you have lent us, and enable us to conduct ourselves with patience, zeal, and generosity; though Christ our Lord. Amen.

MORNING PRAYER PART TWO

SCRIPTURE READING

Before you read your passage for this Wednesday morning, thank God for revealing himself through the written Word of Scripture.

DWELLING

Read the passage again, perhaps out loud. Reflect and meditate on what has connected with your heart and mind. Pray to God about what has moved you today. Turn your thoughts to him and enjoy his presence.

COLLECT

Lord God Almighty, you have made all the peoples of the earth for your glory, to serve you in freedom and in peace: give to the people of our country a zeal for justice and the strength of forbearance, that we may use our liberty in accordance with your gracious will; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

PRAY FOR JUSTICE IN OUR GOVERNMENT

- For our provincial and municipal government, our premier and mayor, and all who work alongside them
- For our national government and our Prime Minister Justin Trudeau

SCRIPTURE READING

Read the passage for this Thursday morning.
Don't rush! This is God's Word!

DWELLING

Remind yourself that you are in God's presence.
Read the passage again. Notice what is good about God in this passage. Is there a specific characteristic of God on display? Spend some time praising him for his goodness.

COLLECT

Almighty God, kindle, we pray, in every heart the true love of peace, and guide with your wisdom those who take counsel for the nations of the earth, that in tranquility your dominion may increase until the earth is filled with the knowledge of your love; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.
Amen.

PRAY FOR PEACE IN THE WORLD

SCRIPTURE READING

The words you're about to read are inspired and infallible. Now, read the passage for this Friday morning.

DWELLING

Read the passage once more. Find a word or phrase that catches your eye. Why has this idea moved you? Slowly repeat it in your mind. Pray through this idea with God, talk to him about it. Enjoy the presence of your Saviour.

COLLECT

O God, you have made of one blood all the peoples of the earth, and sent your blessed Son to preach peace to those who are far off and to those who are near: grant that people everywhere may seek after you and find you, bring the nations into your fold, pour out your Spirit upon all flesh, and hasten the coming of your kingdom; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

SCRIPTURE READING

Ask God to speak to you as you read your passage for this Saturday morning. Don't rush! This is God's Word!

DWELLING

Slowly read the passage again, out loud. Reflect on what this passage tells you about God. Spend some time talking to God about what stood out to you.

COLLECT

Almighty God, the giver of all good gifts, in your divine providence you have appointed various orders in your Church: give your grace, we humbly pray, to all who are called to any office and ministry for your people; and so fill them with the truth of your doctrine and clothe them with holiness of life, that they may faithfully serve before you, to the glory of your great Name and for the benefit of your holy Church; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

INTERCESSORY PRAYER

O Lord God, who makes light shine out of darkness, and who has again awakened us to praise you for your goodness and to ask for your grace: accept the offering of our worship and thanksgiving, and grant to us all such requests as may be acceptable to your holy will.

Make us to live as children of the light, and heirs of your everlasting kingdom. And remember Lord, according to the vastness of your mercies, your whole Church, those who join us in prayer, and all our brothers and sisters wherever they may be who stand in need of your help:

Dwell here. Pray for people who come to mind.

Pour down upon us all the riches of your grace, so that, redeemed in soul and body, and steadfast in faith, we may ever praise your wonderful and holy Name; through Jesus Christ our Lord.
Amen.

Quiet

God most High and Holy, Three in One,
Father, Son, and Holy Spirit:
today we offer you ourselves,
our souls and bodies, and all that we have,
to be a reasonable, holy, and living sacrifice to you,
to whom be all praise and glory.
Amen.

BENEDICTION

Lord, be gracious to us and bless us
and make your face shine upon us, that your way may be known on earth
and your saving power among all nations.
Amen.

EVENING PRAYER

Every Evening

EVENING PRAYER PART ONE

INVITATION

"Come to me, all you who are weary and burdened,
and I will give you rest."

Matthew 11.28

Quiet

As our evening prayer rises before you, O God, so may your mercy come down upon us to cleanse our hearts and set us free to sing your praise now and for ever.

CONFESSION

Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will,
and walk in your ways, to the glory of your Name.
Amen.

PARDON THROUGH THE CROSS

Almighty Father, in your great love you gave your dearly beloved Son to die for us: grant that through his cross our sins may be put away, and remembered no more against us, and that, cleansed by his blood, and mindful of his sufferings, we may take up our cross daily, and follow him in newness of life, until we come to his everlasting kingdom; through your Son Jesus Christ our Lord.
Amen.

REJOICE

Dwell upon the magnitude of salvation and the free gift of grace: the forgiveness of sins, the hope of everlasting life and the reconciliation of all things. Express your gratitude to the Father for the redemption offered to us in Christ and for the gift of his Holy Spirit.

SCRIPTURE READING

Read your passage for this Monday evening.
As the sun has set, remember that God's "word is a lamp for my feet."

Psalm 119.105

DWELLING

Read your passage again, out loud. Read it slowly.
How has God's Word moved you? Reflect on what this passage tells you about God. Spend some time talking to God about what stood out to you.

COLLECT

Lighten our darkness, we ask you O Lord;
and by your great mercy defend us from all perils and dangers of this night, for the love of your only Son, our Saviour Jesus Christ.
Amen.

GIVE THANKS

"Fix your thoughts on what is true, and honourable, and right, and pure, and lovely, and admirable. Think about things that are excellent and worthy of praise."

Philippians 4.8

Take St. Paul's instruction to heart and reflect upon your day. Have you seen any prayer answered? A conflict resolved? The Spirit working?
Sincere love in a friendship? Demonstrations of mercy? Anything worthy of praise?

Slow down, reflect, and take time to thank God for the good you've seen in your day.

SCRIPTURE READING

Read the passage for this Tuesday evening. As the day has now past, find your peace in God's Word.

DWELLING

Read the passage once again. Find a word or phrase that catches your eye. Why has this idea moved you? Slowly repeat it in your mind. Pray through this idea with God, talk to him about it. Enjoy the presence of your Saviour.

Quiet

COLLECT

Look down, Lord, from your heavenly throne, and illuminate the darkness of this night with your celestial brightness; and from the children of light banish the deeds of darkness, through Christ Jesus our Lord. Amen.

GIVE THANKS

"Remember your leaders who taught you the word of God. Think of all the good that has come from their lives, and follow the example of their faith."

Hebrews 13.7

Thank God for our many leaders: Our archbishop and bishops, our pastors, our Stephen Ministers; all who lead Community Groups, Alpha, in Children's Ministry, and on our Parish Leadership Team.

Thank God for leaders, past and present, who have personally invested in your life and made a lasting impact upon your growth in Christ.

Wednesday

EVENING PRAYER PART TWO

SCRIPTURE READING

Ask God to send his Spirit to bring his Word to life in your soul. Now, read the passage for this Wednesday evening.

DWELLING

Remind yourself that you are in God's presence. Read the passage again. Notice what is good about God in this passage. Is there a specific characteristic of God on display? Spend some time praising him for his goodness.

Quiet

COLLECT

O Lord, you have supported us all the day long of this troublous life; now, as the shadows lengthen and the evening comes, grant us safe lodging. As the busy world is hushed, the fever of life is over, and our work concludes, bring us a holy rest and peace at last; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

GIVE THANKS

"Always be joyful. Never stop praying. Be thankful in all circumstances, for this is God's will for you who belong to Christ Jesus."

1 Thessalonians 5.16-18

No matter how your day has gone – up or down, bad or great – God's desire is for us to be thankful. Even if we don't feel gratitude, we can still give thanks, which in turn may cultivate gratitude in our hearts.

What are five things you can thank God for today?

SCRIPTURE READING

Read the passage for this Thursday evening.
Ask God to change you with his Word.

DWELLING

Read your passage again, perhaps out loud.
Hear the Word of God. How has God's Word moved you? Reflect and meditate on what has connected with your heart and mind. Pray to God about what has moved you today. Turn your thoughts to him and enjoy his presence.

Quiet

COLLECT

Almighty God, whose loving hand gives us all that we possess: grant us grace, as this day concludes, that we may increasingly desire to honour you with all our substance, and remembering the account which we must one day give, guide us to be faithful stewards of the resources and bounty with which we have been entrusted; through Christ Jesus, we pray. Amen.

GIVE THANKS

"It is good to give thanks to the Lord ... O Lord, what great works you do!"

Psalm 91.1-5

Thank God for the organizations we partner with: Anglican Network in Canada, Anglican Church in North America, Helping Point India, More Than A Roof, Redeemer City to City, C2C Network, Always Forward, and Anglican Relief & Development Fund.

Thank God for organizations you partner with, whose work resonates with your personal convictions.

SCRIPTURE READING

Read the passage for this Friday evening.
Don't rush! This is God's Word!

DWELLING

Leisurely read the passage again. Is there a word or idea that stuck with you? Give it your attention. Is there something about this word or idea that you'd like to ask God about? Take a moment to rest in God's presence.

Quiet

COLLECT

Be present, merciful God, and protect us through the silent hours of this night, so that we who are wearied by the changes and chances of this fleeting world, may find repose in your eternal changelessness; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

GIVE THANKS

"You have turned for me my mourning into dancing; you have loosed my sackcloth and clothed me with gladness, that my glory may sing your praise and not be silent. O Lord my God, I will give thanks to you forever!"

Psalm 30.11-12

Thankfulness doesn't always come easily, especially if we're in a season of grief or mourning. Spend time reflecting on areas of hopelessness, struggle, hurt or frustration in your life. Ask God to grant you a willing and thankful spirit, that you may give thanks to him like the Psalmist.

SCRIPTURE READING

Read the passage for this Saturday evening.
Let the Word of God refresh your mind.

DWELLING

Read the passage again, out loud. Read it slowly.
How has God's Word moved you? Reflect on what this passage tells you about God. Spend some time talking to God about what stood out to you.

Quiet

COLLECT

Visit this place, we ask of you Lord, and drive from it all the snares of the enemy; let your holy angels dwell herein to preserve us in peace; and may your blessing be upon us evermore; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

GIVE THANKS

"Give thanks to the Lord, for he is good; his love endures forever. Let the redeemed of the Lord tell their story."

Psalms 107.1-2

The past is an opportunity for thankfulness as much as the present. Sometimes we need to step back and look at the big picture.

Take time to recall your life story and thank God for the times He has shown you his goodness, redeemed you, and demonstrated his steadfast love. Similarly, thank God for what he is doing in the stories of those around you.

PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

Almighty God, Father of all mercies, we your unworthy servants give you most humble and sincere thanks for all your goodness and loving-kindness to us and to all people; we bless you for our creation, preservation, and all the blessings of this life; but above all for your inestimable love in the redemption of the world by our Lord Jesus Christ; for the means of grace, and for the hope of glory.

Give us that due sense of all your mercies, that our hearts may be always thankful, and that we may show forth your praise, not only with our lips, but in our lives; by giving up ourselves to your service, and by walking before you in holiness and righteousness all our days; through Jesus Christ our Lord, to whom, with you and the Holy Spirit, be all honour and glory, world without end.

Quiet

We will lay us down in peace and take our rest;
for it is you, Lord, only, that makes us dwell in safety.
You, O Lord, are in the midst of us, and we are called by your name. Leave us not, O Lord our God.
Preserve us, O Lord, waking, and guard us sleeping, that awake we may watch with Christ,
and asleep we may rest in peace.

DOXOLOGY (SUNG)

Praise God from whom all blessings flow
Praise him all creatures here below
Praise him above ye heavenly hosts
Praise Father, Son and Holy Ghost
Amen.

BENEDICTION

The Lord grant us a quiet night, and at the last a perfect end; and the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, be with us this night, and forevermore.
Amen.

SCRIPTURE READING

People struggle to read Scripture, let alone to make it through the entire Bible year after year. In light of this struggle, we decided to create a reading plan that is attainable: one chapter in the morning, and one chapter in the evening. We also decided to rotate back and forth between Old Testament and New Testament books in their entirety because it's important to comprehend a book's narrative and purpose. Because of these two aims, it is not possible to cover every single book of the Bible in a single year.

We selected the broadest range of genres which cover the overarching story of Scripture. While you will read through the entire New Testament, you will not cover all of the Old Testament. Below is the list of books that have been omitted. Since these books are equally important and inspired, we encourage you to periodically set aside time throughout the year to read them as well. Many can be read in a single sitting, while some may require more time. Alternatively, you can read an additional chapter per day (roughly) to complete the omitted 382 chapters of the Old Testament:
